

Laura Penn, Ph.D.

Expert Thought-Leader
Industry Disruptor
Author and Entrepreneur

About

Dr. Laura Penn specializes in transforming leaders and changemakers from the world's most well known companies, organizations, and academic institutions, into speakers who are authentic, accessible, and memorable. She empowers them to be themselves, to take up space, and to enjoy the experience of speaking, so that they can meaningfully connect with their audiences and bring their messages to life.

A four-time TEDx speaker, featured on the prestigious TED.com platform, award-winning international speaker, author, and Founder of The Leadership Speaking School, based in Switzerland, Dr. Penn is a passionate advocate for disrupting the status quo for how we speak in front of audiences.

Favorite Topics

- 1.) Authenticity & Connection in Leadership Speaking
- 2.) Future-Focused Leadership
- 3.) Leadership Speaking in the Digital Age
- 4.) Future of Work
- 5.) Making Her-Story: Women & Public Speaking

Notable Tidbits

Dr. Penn is the Host of the Leadership Speaking Radio podcast. Native of Sweden and of New York City, she is the author of three books and is an accomplished performing artist in dance. Mother of two teenagers, she loves gardening, 80's soul and breakdancing music, and all things Japanese.

E: laura.penn@theleadershipspeakingsschool.com